

BorgWarner Releases 2026 Sustainability Report: Powering Tomorrow

Auburn Hills, Michigan, September 2, 2026 – BorgWarner published its 2026 Sustainability Report, “Powering Tomorrow,” highlighting the company's continued progress on its sustainability goals and initiatives in support of its vision of a clean, energy-efficient world.

“Powering Tomorrow is more than the title of this year's report. For over 130 years, we've enabled OEMs to power vehicles all while improving their performance and efficiency, and we're leveraging our expertise and know-how to support the industrial market with the same goals in mind,” said Joseph F. Fadool, President and CEO, BorgWarner Inc. “The highlighted progress reflects the dedication of our employees around the world, who continue to advance technologies that support a cleaner future while strengthening our company through responsible business practices in our constantly evolving industry. I am proud of what our teams have accomplished and confident that our commitment to sustainability will help create lasting value for our customers, employees, stockholders and communities.”

BorgWarner's 2026 report highlights the company's progress in greenhouse gas emissions, enhanced supplier sustainability engagement, strong cybersecurity awareness across the organization and continued investment in employee development and internal career growth.

To read the complete sustainability report, visit:

<https://www.borgwarner.com/company/sustainability>.

About BorgWarner

For more than 130 years, BorgWarner has been a transformative global product leader bringing successful mobility innovation to market. With a focus on sustainability, we're helping to build a cleaner, healthier, safer future for all.

BorgWarner published its 2026 Sustainability Report, “Powering Tomorrow,” highlighting the company's continued progress on its sustainability goals and initiatives in support of its vision of a clean, energy-efficient world.

Forward-Looking Statements: This press release contains forward-looking statements as contemplated by the 1995 Private Securities Litigation Reform Act that are based on management's current outlook, expectations, estimates and projections. Words such as “anticipates,” “believes,” “continues,” “could,” “designed,” “effect,” “estimates,” “evaluates,” “expects,” “forecasts,” “goal,” “guidance,” “initiative,” “intends,” “may,” “outlook,” “plans,” “potential,” “predicts,” “project,” “pursue,” “seek,” “should,” “target,” “when,” “will,” “would,” and variations of such words and similar expressions are intended to identify such forward-looking statements. Further, all statements, other than statements of historical fact contained or incorporated by reference in this press release that we expect or anticipate will or may occur in the future regarding our business strategy, competitive strengths, goals, expansion and growth of our business and operations, plans, references to future success and other such matters, are forward-looking statements. All forward-looking statements are based on assumptions and analyses made by us in light of our experience and our perception of historical trends, current conditions and expected future developments, as well as other factors we believe are appropriate under the circumstances. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of performance, and the Company's actual results may differ materially from those expressed, projected or implied in or by the forward-looking statements.

You should not place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this press release. Forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties, many of which are difficult to predict and generally beyond our control, that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed, projected or implied in or by the forward-looking statements. These risks and uncertainties, among others, include: the supply disruptions impacting us or our customers, commodity availability and pricing; conditions in the automotive industry; competitive challenges from existing and new competitors, including original equipment manufacturer (“OEM”) customers; the challenges associated with rapidly changing technologies, including artificial intelligence, and our ability to innovate in response; potential future changes in laws and regulations, including, by way of example, taxes and tariffs, in the countries in which we operate; potential disruptions in the global economy caused by wars or other geopolitical conflicts; our dependence on automotive and truck production, which is highly cyclical and subject to disruptions; our reliance on major OEM customers; impacts of any future strikes involving any of our OEM customers and any actions such OEM customers take in response; fluctuations in interest rates and foreign currency exchange rates; our dependence on information systems; the uncertainty of the global economic environment; the uncertainty surrounding global trade policies, including tariffs and export restrictions, and their impacts on the Company, its customers and its suppliers; the outcome of existing or any future legal proceedings, including litigation with respect to various claims, or governmental investigations, including related litigations; impacts from any potential future acquisition or disposition transactions; and the other risks discussed in reports that we file with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including in Item 1A, “Risk Factors” in our most recently-filed Annual Report on Form 10-K and/or Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q. We do not undertake any obligation to update or announce publicly any updates to or revisions to any of the forward-looking statements in this release to reflect any change in our expectations or any change in events, conditions, circumstances, or assumptions underlying the statements.

PR contact:

Michelle Collins

Phone: +1 248-373-2574

Email: mediacontact@borgwarner.com